

Keep It Real 100 is a dynamic conversation-based virtual board game designed specifically for BIPOC youth, adults, and allies.

Keep It Real 100 provides a safe and structured space to build connection, hold gentle yet bold conversations, and discover authentic truths about issues that have a profound impact on our lives.

PROVEN IMPACT

Keep It Real's signature original game is currently being used by more than 1,000 universities! It's become the go-to diversity and inclusion game for students and campus staff alike!

The game is universally embraced and consistently recommended for its transformational impact - building understanding, empathy, compassion, acceptance, and meaningful connection. Keep It Real 100 takes the conversation even further.
